FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date September 29, 1968

[redacted] Chicago, advised as follows regarding his observations on August 28, 1968.

b6
b7C

At 1:00 PM, he observed a small number of people congregating in the area of the band shell in the south-east corner of Grank Park. Within an hour the seating area began to fill and, in addition, Hippies, and Yippies were lounging in the grassy areas surrounding the band shell.

At approximately 2:15 PM, SIDNEY PECK, Co-Chairman of the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam (NMC), and Assistant Professor of Philosophy at Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio, called the meeting to order. PECK served as master of ceremonies. At that time, the crowd turned to the southwest in the direction of the site of the Democratic National Convention and gave the derogation, the index finger pointed upward. The audience was estimated to be about 15,000 people. DAVE DELLINGER was introduced by PECK as the National Chairman of the NMC. PECK stated there would not be much talking since they were there to act and in due time he would discuss plans for the march on the Democratic Convention.

DAVE DELLINGER introduced several veterans from Vietnam who were members of the Chicago Veterans For Peace. One of these veterans, CHARLES BURCHARD, spoke of the atrocities he observed in Vietnam and decried the apathy of the American soldiers in Vietnam and the lack of concern for issues involved. PHIL OCHS, the popular folk-rock singer, then sang several songs to get the audience in a good mood.

DELLINGER and PECK alternated in making announcements about fund raising and turning in monies collected and in so doing they mentioned the names TODD GITLIN and DAVID RANSOM of the Champaign, Illinois, Peace and Freedom Party. DELLINGER announced a suit had been filed against the City of Chicago for police brutality and solicited volunteers to come forth and provide witness affidavits to be used in the suit. CHARLES BROCK of the Veterans For Peace presented his views on the war in Vietnam and was highly critical of the military establishment.

DELLINGER announced the names of a number of black leaders, including ANDY HAYNES from Oregon, reportedly dealing with the caucus of black delegates at the Democratic Convention. DELLINGER stated he hoped to bring a delegate from the Democratic National Convention to speak to the assembly but the delegates were unable to be absent from the floor of the convention. HAYNES commented regarding the theme of power to the blacks and he was followed by BO TAYLOR of Detroit, Michigan, who stated he was telling it "like it is." TAYLOR's comments were a crude representation of black power that emphasized violence and his remarks were supported with obscenities and profanity.

GREG SANDU was introduced as a member of the resistance. He asked DELLINGER for a light and then proceeded to burn a document held in his hand which he represented as a letter from the Justice Department notifying him he was delinquent in reporting for the draft. SANDU spoke on August 27, 1968, at Lincoln Park and identified himself as being active in the New England Peace and Freedom Party and outlined his work in same.

At about 3:20 PM, DELLINGER was about to make an introduction when a youth was observed climbing the flag mast from which the American Flag was flying. As the youth was ascending the pole, the crowd was shouting, "No, No." The police moved into the confusion near the flag mast and a fight and scuffle ensued between the police and representatives in the audience. RENNIE DAVIS rushed into the melee. Motives and actions of individuals were not clear and the police, after reaching the youth climbing the mast, removed him from the area in a police car. Rowdy elements in the audience converged on the scene amid a hail of bricks, rocks, bottles, and plastic bags containing colored substances that splattered upon impact, giving off a foul odor. In addition, large cans were also hurled which contained garbage, grease, and lard. The police set off tear gas to attempt to quell this element and one activist grabbed one of the gas canisters and hurled it into a gathering of police officers.

During this time, PECK and DELLINGER addressed the audience and urged them to remain seated. They sought to avoid giving the police a pretext to break up the gathering. Recurring outbursts and scuffles occurred until it was announced the police did not intend to press into the meeting any further but were there only to prevent acts of violence. The police, however, were accused of unwarranted intrusion into the meeting and perpetrating acts of violence. A platoon of helmeted police were marched into the center of the assembly where they stood for the remainder of the rally.

Following the aforementioned incident, DAVIS was observed being attended by one of the NMC medics. He was bleeding from an apparent wound on his head. His shirt was splattered with blood and someone ran a blood-soaked rag up the flag pole. DAVIS was later observed being interviewed by members of the press and was subsequently taken to a hospital, as was BOB HOUGH from Glencoe, Illinois, who also suffered wounds which left blood on his neck and on his shirt.

From that point on, tensions mounted but the speakers continually called for all individuals to "keep cool."

Endless number of speakers continued to harangue the audience, criticizing the Chicago police, the current administration, Mayor DALEY, the Democratic Convention and racism in America.

ALLEN GINSBERG attempted to chant unintelligible poem but his effort failed to rouse the audience. He was hoarse from chanting the previous day. JEAN GENET was introduced as a hero of the recent French uprising and spoke a few words of French which few people understood. CARL OGLESBY, one of the founders of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), spoke at length. DICK GREGORY, the comedian, was among the last to speak and he ended by blessing the young people present for their efforts to create a better world under which his six children could thrive and develop. At this point, PECK and DELLINGER began to unfold plans for the frequently mentioned march to the Democratic Convention. DELLINGER stated there would be three options open to those present to suit their particular points of view. First, the leaders of the NMC, TOM HAYDEN, PECK, himself, and others, would lead a non-violent demonstration to the Democratic Convention. He emphasized it would be nonviolent and asked those wishing to join that march to assemble after the rally at the southwest corner of the park and form up in columns of eight. The second option applied to those who wished to leave and do whatever they felt they must do elsewhere. These individuals were cautioned to leave in small groups for their own safety and reassemble outside the immediate park area. The third option was for those who wished to avoid any overt demonstration, and they were counseled to remain in the park until the rally had completely disbanded.

In the final rash of speakers, HAYDEN exhorted the audience to remember that DAVIS had been "busted" and JERRY RUBIN shouted his usual four-letter words, noting that the American flag which had been jerked down, had no meaning to the assembled group and said the end in the United States is coming; that everyone should take the streets as they belong to you. Prior to this inflammatory rhetoric, a live pig was brought onto the stage as a nominee for President. Unfavorable comments of candidates nominated by the Republicans and Democrats were made as parallels with the pig. In addition, recurring announcements were made concerning precautions to take if tear gas or a mace was used against them. The admonitions included moistening cloths and breathing through them, not rubbing the eyes, breathing through the mouth and reporting to the first aid stations in the area. The park was surrounded by police and National Guardsmen as the assembly ended. Many left the area but remained on the fringes to observe beyond the police cordon.

Chicago, Illinois, on September 27, 1963, furnished a tape

Chicago, Illinois, on August 23, 1963, to SA [redacted].

b6
b7C

A transcript of part of the tape pertaining to a speech by CARL OGLESDY is as follows:

Alright! We have always cooled it, but we have the official word from Deputy Chief NYGREN that as long as it is cool, as it already is, down with boys and men. Keep to your places. Keep to your places; keep to your places; keep to your places. Sit down, sit down, sit down, sit down, sit down, sit down, sit down. Keep your eye off the band shelter or we may have to move then. Alright. We have been told by the police officer in charge there will be no arrests. I am not joking. They have not already been actively killing. They shall be reported. Everyone of these, in their zone numbers (inaudible). CARL OGLESBY will end up in your (inaudible) newspaper (inaudible). The Chief of Police announces that they will be very cool. There shall be no attacks and if one of us here he sees an attack he sees an attack of authority. He sees us attacked on our head. Is there any reason he should be deprived that piece of curiosity. Is there any reason after all these years that he should have to open our heads to enforce law and order? That the word (inaudible) takes place? Is there even one reason why we should be (inaudible) or just break down into orderly countries of reasoning that the attacker even if he delivers the blow should explain that he means not to attack us? (Inaudible). Should it become absolutely and hopelessly familiar to us that (inaudible). That an American born in poverty. We begin to move in the understanding of not being at all Americans but rather as being the policy of a privileged city that stands above us. Let us cross theirline that makes us for the most part white middle-class people with the American dream in the palm of our hand among the white city people. Let us think for the moment that for the moment... Get a doctor. That is for people (inaudible). We need a doctor. Is there a doctor any place? Is it possible that (inaudible). We need one more medic to the left of the platform. Continue to sit down. Keep it cool and we'll handle it the best that way. CARL OGLESBY back again to get one more introduction. Well look, what I'm trying to say is what you very well know. It is the same here. It is here the way it was in Watts, its here the way it is in Saigon, its here the way it was in Bolivia, in Peru, in South Africa. We need revolutions now. There is a fight going on. That fight is not going to be fought out with cream puffs. It is not going to be won by nice words. It is going to be won only through the extent that we decide to fight the fight. We do not have any alternative. We can't meet up here and apologize to the blue bonnets. We can't say brothers we only wanted to come over here to express our dissent. We only wanted to come over here and end the crime of violence. We weren't really really serious about it brothers. (Inaudible). We can't say that any more because we are the future. (Inaudible) That's the whole story down at the Amphitheater. That funeral. What's here is America. (Inaudible). What we say is that denying America is never the American (inaudible). The past is never ready for the future. (inaudible) because we have dedicated (inaudible). Because we have liberalized. We do this because we understand that nothing less than a white can even insure our survival. You cannot survive in this country accepting to fight for your rights to make this country in the future. You cannot survive here accepting you fight for your rights to live out your constitutional solution to racism. Not to hate. Your solution to the war in Vietnam, not De GAUL. Accepting your fight for what America can become (Inaudible). There isn't any contingent here about being good or bad German. There isn't any distinction any distinction any more for us as to when we are going to break off our dissent and (inaudible). We are in this because we can't be any place else. Right here to the end because we can't be any place else. Right here to the end because there isn't any place to go to the end. The future can only be the future. The people who understand the problem must understand it. They can't be sorry tomorrow. The people who have the solution must work out those solutions. They can't decide to let those solutions go away. You know how to solve the problem on racism. (Inaudible). We are getting closer to the time of beginning our march. We have a couple more people (inaudible). I want to talk to the marchers who I know have their hands full but I'd like to be sure to ask the next speaker about whether the marchers are working on the details of instructing them (inaudible). DICK GREGORY is in the crowd already. I understand that he came here half an hour ago. Come up to the platform (inaudible for rest of his speech).

[redacted] Special Agent,
113th Military Intelligence, 2231 West Howard, Evanston, Illinois, advised during the period of the Democratic National Convention (DNC) he was assigned to observe the demonstrators in the Chicago area. However, most of his observations were made from a vehicle in which he was traveling and he could not furnish any specific information as to activities of any one person.

b6
b7c

He first observed demonstrators on Saturday, August 24, 1968, in the Lincoln Park and Old Town area of Wells Street. During this time he reported movements of the demonstrators by radio and cannot recall any specific actions of any individual. His assignment consisted of the same type observations through August 28, 1968. On August 29, 1968 he was assigned to the Amphitheater.

On August 28, 1968, he was out of his car in the area of the Grant Park Band Shell, when the police came into the group assembled in front of the band shell. He does not know why the police took this action and does not recall any activity concerning the lowering of the United States flag adjacent to the band shell.

At this time he did observe a group of negroes, about six or seven, and over heard them saying, "Now is the time to get the pigs." He observed this group pick up cans, bottles, and what rocks they could find, but did not observe these individuals throw these objects.

During the rally in Grant Park on August 28, 1968, he saw both RENNIE DAVIS and DAVE DELLINGER at the band shell. Both spoke during the rally, but he cannot recall any statements made by either DAVIS or DELLINGER.

Later, during the evening of August 28, 1968, just after the mule train had passed down Michigan Avenue, in front of the Conrad Hilton Hotel, he observed a Negro Marine Corporal talking to a portion of the crowd near the Hilton Hotel. This Marine made statements that he had been in Vietnam and other statements downgrading the military service. [redacted] stated he cannot recall specific statements made in this regard. This Marine ended by stating he was a Blackstone Ranger and "we are here."

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated he was raised and still resides in the Hyde Park area. He believes he recognized some of the negroes in the crowd as Blackstone Rangers, however, he cannot identify anyone by name.

Later on, during this same evening, during the major clash with the Chicago Police Department, he observed negroes, who he believes were Blackstone Rangers, yelling "Hyde Park" and "Stone" which would be short for the Hyde Park Blackstone Rangers.

He also observed negroes scattered throughout the crowd throwing cans, bottles and rocks at the police during the confrontation near the Hilton Hotel.

[redacted] was shown the following photographs of individuals believed to have been in Chicago during the DNC:

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated he only recognized photographs of DAVIS, DELLINGER and HOFFMAN as individuals he had observed during his assignment. However, he could not furnish any specific information regarding their activities other than as stated above regarding DAVIS and DELLINGER.

He observed ABBOTT HOFFMAN several times during the week in Lincoln Park and Grant Park, but was not close enough to him to overhear any conversation by HOFFMAN.

He did not observe at any time individuals he believed to be Blackstone Rangers talking to any of the above-named individuals.

In addition, he made a tape recording of some of the speeches at the band shell but because of a mistake involving recharging his tape recorder the contents of the tape he made was erased.

He said he recalled the name of CARL OGLESBY being mentioned as one of the speakers but he could not recall what he looked like or what remarks he might have made during the speeches.

Re Bureau airtel, 10/22/68, captioned, "Demonstrations in Connection with the Democratic National Convention; ARL."

Review of all cases in the Milwaukee Division growing out of the Democratic National Convention has been made without reflecting any evidence implicating captioned individual in the over-all conspiracy in regard to Title 18, Sections 245, 2101, 2102, or 231. Consequently, no additional report is being submitted.

Milwaukee, however, is reopening ten of these cases for the purpose of reinterviewing these ten persons, who were involved in varying degrees in demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention for the purpose of eliciting any positive statements made by subjects in this matter and to exhibit photographs of them for identification purposes.

On Tuesday, October 29, 1968, at 7:15 a.m., [redacted] surrendered to SAs [redacted] and [redacted] at ramp H, gate 4, O'Hare International Airport. [redacted] had just arrived on Delta flight 94 from New Orleans, Louisiana. He said this flight came to Chicago via Atlanta, Georgia.

b7C

He was immediately placed under arrest, handcuffed, searched and removed from the terminal to Chicago car 169 and transported to the Chicago Office of the FBI. He was orally warned of his rights by SA [redacted] at 7:20 a.m. He stated that he did not want to make any statement about the theft, transportation or storage of the dynamite.

b6

At 8:15 a.m., he was photographed and fingerprinted at the Chicago Office.

At 8:30 a.m., he was taken to the interview room where he was furnished with the standard Warning and Waiver Form at 8:33 a.m. [redacted] read the standard Warning of Rights Form and executed the waiver at 8:37 a.m. He again stated that he did not wish to make any statement as to the local offense until he had the opportunity to consult an attorney. At 8:45 a.m. SA [redacted] joined the interview. At this time [redacted] stated that the 1,200 pounds of dynamite that was found on South Indiana, by the Chicago Police Department, was intended to be sold to contractors in the Chicago area for a profit.

As to the disorders surrounding the Democratic National Convention [redacted] stated that he met Chicago Police Department undercover agent [redacted] on only two occasions, both at Lincoln Park.

He said he talked with him briefly on one occasion and just said hello, on the other occasion. He said both meetings occurred before the actual convention got underway. He further stated that [redacted] must be a "liar" as his statements to the press were fabricated. He reiterated that he only went to Lincoln Park the two days prior to the Democratic National Convention to see what was going on and to have a good time with [redacted]

[redacted] of which he was president. He said while he was at Lincoln Park "they" were talking about blowing up Buckingham Fountain and the Picasso but he could not identify "they". He said that none actually asked him for the dynamite and he would not have sold them any if they had asked him. He said he would not sell dynamite to anyone who planned to kill or injure any other person. He said only two members of the [redacted] actually pursued their attendance at the disorders surrounding the convention throughout the week. He described these two as [redacted] and [redacted]. He said that he does not know if these two individuals were asked to obtain dynamite. He said he does not think they would tell him if they were.

He further said that he made absolutely no agreement with Yippies to supply them with guns and/or dynamite for women.

He said the only one that seemed to be of any consequence that he met at Lincoln Park was known to him as [redacted]. At this time SA [redacted] furnished [redacted] with a photograph of [redacted] which [redacted] identified as being identical with the individual known to him as [redacted]. He stated that [redacted] had a long discussion with him about obtaining electronic boxes that would transmit a high velocity squeal which would be inaudible to human beings but would drive the police dogs "out of their minds".

b6

SA [redacted] displayed photographs of the following individuals to [redacted] which he was not able to identify as being seen at Lincoln Park prior to the convention:

[redacted] Alabama, was interviewed at his home, and after being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, he was provided with a standard Interrogation and Advice of Rights form. [redacted] read this form, stated he fully understood his rights and did not mind answering any questions concerning his trip to Chicago, and his presence and subsequent arrest at a demonstration while in Chicago. He signed this form [redacted]

b6

In response to a direct question concerning possible identification of any other individuals from Antioch College who participated in demonstrations connected with the Democratic National Convention, [redacted] advised that when he left the campus of Antioch College with his brother and travelled to Chicago on August 23, 1968, there was one other individual who rode with them in the automobile. He advised that he presumed this individual was a student at Antioch although he does not know his name. He described him as a white male about 5'9", 180 pounds, who were a full board. He stated that this individual showed up at the dormitory where he and his brother spent the night of August 24, 1968, and stated that he had been referred to them by the people who were running the booth in the Student Union Building in being able to provide him with a ride to Chicago. [redacted] advised that this booth or desk at the Student Union Building at Antioch was available as a coordinating point for people who needed transportation to Chicago. He advised that [redacted] left his name at the desk as a person with space for one to Chicago. [redacted] stated that this individual stayed with he and his brother after they got to Chicago until evening on the morning of August 26, 1968. [redacted] stated that although he was introduced to this boy, he does not remember his name but feels [redacted] might remember who he was.

[redacted] advised that he assumed there were a lot of students from Antioch College present in Chicago, but he does not know personally who they were or who arranged for their travel or their lodging while in Chicago. He did advise that after arriving in Chicago and going directly to Lincoln Park, they eventually moved to the Third Unitarian Church in the Austin section of Chicago. He advised that they stayed in that church the night of August 23, and he slept on the large cushion from a chaise lounge. [redacted] stated that prior to going to this Unitarian Church, [redacted] called someone on the telephone and made the arrangements. He advised that the church basement was available to any students as far as he knows because it was at the church where he was approached and asked whether he would serve as a self defense instructor or a parade marshal. [redacted] advised that he does not know the identity of the individuals operating a desk at the Unitarian Church, but that they seemed to be young people, and he assumed that they were students. He stated that because his reason for being there was not because he is affiliated with any anti-war organization but rather to help in the effort by the National Democratic Party of Alabama to get seated, he declined to participate in any workshop or serve in any other capacity. He advised that when requested to participate as a marshal he was told that his services would require that he maintain order during any demonstrations, watch for attacks on demonstrators by police or other groups, and to constantly plan and look for avenues of escape in the event the group was attacked. [redacted] advised also that while at the church he observed that a great emphasis was placed on the problem of what one might do if arrested. There were ample supplies of brochures with instructions thereon regarding what to say, what not to say, and who to call to make bail.

[redacted] was shown the photographs of fifteen individuals, and he expressed comments as follows:

b6
b7Cb6
b7C

MH 176-1

TOM HAYDEN - [redacted] advised that he recognized the photograph as the man pointed out to him as one of the leaders of an anti-war movement. He advised that he recalls that HAYDEN was arrested several times, but he recalls particularly his being arrested sometime on Monday morning at Lincoln Park. He does not know and has never met TOM HAYDEN.

b6
b7C

CARL OGLESBY - [redacted] viewed this photograph and stated that it resembles an individual who also stayed Sunday night at the Third Unitarian Church. He advised he had never met him before and that he did not have a beard when he met him at the church.

b6
b7C

REWARD C. DAVIS - [redacted] viewed this photograph and stated he recognized it as REXHIE DAVIS, but that the photograph must have been taken several years ago. He advised that DAVIS was present during the demonstrations on Monday, August 26, 1968, and was the individual who spoke on the loud speaker during the protest march from Lincoln Park to the Central Police Station, and then to Grant Park, during which he carried the loud speaker equipment. He stated that he could not specifically recount any of the comments made by DAVIS, but that they were of a normal nature considering the general mood of the protesting crowd.

DAVID TYRE DELIJGER - [redacted] stated that he recognizes the man as the man whom he believes to be the head of the National Mobilization Committee, but does not recall seeing him or hearing him speak while in Chicago.

[redacted] - [redacted] advised that he recognizes him as a well known糴ccasion but knows him by reputation only and did not see him while in Chicago.

b6
b7C

ALFRED HOFFMAN - [redacted] recognized this photograph but stated he never met HOFFMAN before, but did see him often during that protest march and saw him conforzing with [redacted] what you need is organization which can compel those pigs to behave in a desired manner. And what we don't have in the park, what we haven't had yet is the organization that can make those pigs behave in a desired manner. We are going to start it right. Everybody knows what to do. We are going to start now and it's going to take a long time before we can do it. But one reason I thought of this, this is a little dry and a little down to earth, but I ....CNI.... and I got to say it....CNI.... It is a little bit like the Resistance handing in its draft card and expecting to be taken off to jail and thinking that's the way to fight the system, but handing in a draft card is something I'm not in a position to oppose because I did it with my delinquency notice and I am for it. It is a little bit like a liberal tactic when you say O.K., I handed the thing in and now I hope they don't come and get me and I hope they don't because so many people did it, which is real opposition, They've got to change their mind about the draft and they've ....CNI....

(Flag is taken out at this time)

What's going on over there.

First Female Speaker:

All right, Gregg Agnew (Ph), is going to go on with his story.

Fifth Male Speaker:

All right, sit down, stay cool. Sit down, there's a day and a half left. There is a day and a half left if you want to stay.

First Female Speaker:

All right, we've got a report. We have a report. ....CNI.... Everybody sit down, sit down, sit down. The marshals are going to the point. Everybody sit down, all right. The marshals are handling that situation. Gregg Agnew is going to finish up and then we hear from Carl Oglesby. We are here from all over the country....CNI.... and no one is going to give you any kind of provocation and I don't want anybody to disrupt this meeting. Will you all put your things away. ....CNI.... and will everybody sit down and give the speaker your attention. We are very proud to have Carl Olgesby here to speak for us. Carl.

CPO-4429

Sixth Male Speaker - Carl Olgesby:

O.K.....CNI.... All I have to say, I'm going to make it very brief, is that the Resistance up to now is too much in ....CNI....

First Female Speaker:

The marchers are already approaching this way. Hold your places, the marshals are there. Everybody stay where you are. Our marshals are there. We will have a report from the marshals shortly. They are taking care of the situation. ....CNI..... And now we will hear from Carl Olgesby. All right everybody, I have a report from the marshals. They say word for word there are only about 50 police who are side by side, double armed and they are moving people out of that area but not in this ...CNI... in this case. The marshals know how to handle it and whether the people understand,....CNI.... listening to rumors, I don't want, wait for the report from the microphone which will be coming to you from the marshals. Now that we have handled that situation, I give you Carl Olgesby.

Male Speaker: Don't rub your eyes.

First Female Speaker:

All right, don't listen to rumors. Wait until you hear from the marshals. Stay in your seats. (Crowd yelling)

....CNI....

Male Speaker: Don't go to the back, all the colored people up front.

First Female Speaker:

Sit down, sit down, sit down. All right, we have been told by the ....CNI....

Sixth Male Speaker - Carl Olgesby:

....CNI.... It is that kind of politics, that kind of paradox....CNI.... The policy of a person to be....CNI.... enforce our lives and make us for the most part, white middle class people with the American dream in the palm of our hands. They seem to be leaving the stage for the moment. We need a doctor bad. Medical people to the front. The future can only be the future. The people who stand in front of us must understand that they cannot....CNI.... us too. They go down to the Amphitheater....CNI... and they are getting it because you know who they are. ....CNI.... For us, the future.

First Female Speaker:

We are getting closer to the time of baginning our march..We have a couple of morepeople before we do march to give detailed instructions. I want to talk to the marshals who I know....CNI.... and I want to be sure that after the next speaker one of the marshals who is working on detailed assembly and organization dome up here. Dick Gregory is ....CNI.... already. Start about a half hour ago. Come up to the platform. All right, next I give you Dick Hartz (Phonetic), who looks like he is over 30, but talks like he is under 30. ....CNI....Right need we are in need of a car to transport someone to Michael Reese Hospital. If anyone has a car available to take someone to Michael Reese Hospital, please come up front. I am asking those of you who are to....CNI.... those of you who have money, please make a contribution now. ....CNI.... We needaa lot of money to cover medical expenses,paper expenses and all of the other kinds of expenses. ....CNI.... ....for each day we are growing stronger and stronger. There is a medical guy right up here. Will someone with a car please come up here. We need a fellow who is going to Michael Reese Hospital. He's up here. We have a car right here. All right, now will everybody who has money...CNI... give their....CNI...their mind, their heart and their soul. We are passing puckets to take it. ....CNI... we need $25,000 a day, and $25,000....CNI.... and we've got to pay that off. That will just leave us with enough money for medical and legal expenses. Anybody ....CNI.... with money raise their hands, raise them up high. That's all.

Male Speaker: Inaudible

First Female Speaker:

At this time I would like to introduce the famed editor, playwrite poet, the french poet, John Genet (Phonetic). First before we hear from Genet, will Jerry Rubin please come to the front of the platform.

was interviewed at his office located in [redacted]

[redacted] was immediately advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents, and he was informed that the FBI was currently conducting an investigation regarding events transpiring to and during the Democratic National Convention at Chicago, Illinois, to determine the existence of Federal violations. Thereafter, [redacted] advised as follows:

He is [redacted] of [redacted], an organization of Protestant denominations serving the students at Case-Western Reserve University (CWRU).

He did not travel to Chicago at the time of the Democratic Convention, but was instead in Boston, Massachusetts, from August 25, 1968, until August 29, 1968, at a Young Men's Christian Association Convention.

As a representative of [redacted] he was present at a National Mobilization Committee meeting held in Cleveland, Ohio, during July, 1968. This meeting was chaired by DAVID DELLINGER from New York City and by DR. SIDNEY PECK, a professor at CWRU. There were approximately 60 persons from New York City, Chicago, and Cleveland at that meeting.

The initial topic of discussion concerned the possibility of persons traveling to the Democratic National Convention and the possibility of Miami and Chicago being the convention sites. Some discussion was also held concerning movement centers which apparently would be centers where various persons could convene to discuss topics and policies. There was also some talk of a counter celebration of LYNDON B. JOHNSON's birthday.

The major question discussed during the National Mobilization Committee meeting was the Vietnam War with the

There was some conflict as to the tactics that the various travelers to Chicago might engage in as some of the members present took militant stances while others were more cautious. There was also some mention of persons attending to gain entrance to the convention hall.

[redacted] recalled one [redacted] age approximately 60, as being somewhat outspoken regarding what action should be taken at Chicago.

b6
b7C

[redacted] described [redacted] as a member of the "old left" and he noted that nobody takes him seriously.

[redacted] continued that a number of the persons present at the meeting were members of the Movement for a Democratic Society (MDS) organization which, according to [redacted] is less militant than its similar counterpart, the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS).

b6
b7C

[redacted] noted that he, himself, was in disagreement with some of the statements made at that meeting as he felt such statements would lead to "getting one's head bashed in." He noted, however, that to the best of his recollection, no particular provoking actions were advocated, but some of the more violent behavior were mentioned only as alternatives.

[redacted] characterized that meeting as a generally responsible meeting.

[redacted] advised that JERRY RUBIN, ABBE HOFFMAN,

[redacted] ROBIN PALMER, CARL PRESTON, and [redacted] are not known to him. He stated he knows [redacted] only as a Negro entertainer and advised that he took particular attention of the fact that no Negroes were present during the meeting.

It is his understanding that [redacted] was the individual responsible for making the arrangements in Chicago.

CARL PRESTON OGLESBY, JR.

A source advised on December 16, 1968 that an announcement was made at a meeting of the University of Colorado Chapter of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) on December 16, 1968 that five SDS members expected to travel to Cuba on or about January 1, 1969, and that one of these SDS members was Carl Oglesby. According to the announcement, Oglesby has an arrangement with Time-Life Publications to the effect that if any of the material written by Oglesby is utilized by these publications, Oglesby will receive approximately fifteen hundred dollars. Oglesby reportedly was willing to use this money for his own expenses and for the expenses of other SDS members who were making this trip.

A second source advised on January 3, 1969 that on December 30, 1968 David Dobkin, a member of Newsreel, said that Carl Oglesby is in Cuba for a stay of two weeks and was on an assignment from Life magazine. There is a possibility that Oglesby might stay longer than the middle of January 1969.

The second source further advised that Oglesby currently lives at 1268 Vermont Street, San Francisco, California, and is employed as a writer and as a consultant editor to "Ramparts" magazine.

"Ramparts" in a letter to subscribers dated May 1, 1968, announced that beginning June 1, 1968, it would be published biweekly at a yearly subscription price of $15.00. In this letter, "Ramparts" described itself as follows: "...the first national publication to consis-

" 'Ramparts' is now the largest left-of-center commercial magazine in the history of the United States..."

A characterization of SDS appears on an appendix page.

A third source advised in 1966 that during the period from June 1965 through August 1966, Oglesby was president of the SDS organization which maintained headquarters in Chicago, Illinois. During that time, Oglesby was in almost constant travel status throughout the United States and abroad, making appearances for SDS.

A fourth confidential source has described Oglesby as an atheist and a socialist and he is completely sincere to his dedication toward the principles of SDS. Oglesby undertook a severe financial sacrifice in resigning regular employment to assume the SDS presidency.

 He advised that on Wednesday, August 28, 1968, he was in Grant Park, Chicago, Illinois, near the bandshell and heard a number of speakers. One of the speakers was introduced as CARL OGLESBY. He said he could not specifically recall any remarks made by OGLESBY at this time but his remarks were similar in nature to the general theme of the gathering.

He said he did not believe the remarks made by OGLESBY acted in anyway to incite or excite the gathered crowd. Shortly after OGLESBY's remarks the crowd started to form for the march that had been planned.

Shown a photograph of a white male, wearing glasses with his arm extended before a microphone, he identified this individual as the person who had been introduced as CARL OGLESBY.

[REDACTED] and took several photographs at different locations during the period of the Democratic National Convention in Chicago, Illinois.

He viewed a photograph of a white, male, long hair, wearing a cap and sunglasses with his right arm extended in a pointing position, who appeared to be speaking into a microphone. In addition to this individual, five other persons appeared in this photograph. After viewing this photograph, [REDACTED] advised that he recalled taking this particular picture in Grant Park at the Bandshell on August 28, 1968, at approximately 3:00 p.m. He stated that the person described above is named OGLESBY.

b6
b7C

He stated that he did not recall the content of Mr. OGLESBY's speech, however, did not think it was particularly militant. He stated that shortly after this speech, as he recalled, an incident occurred wherein one of the demonstrators at the park tried to take the flag down in the park and put up a "red flag."

He advised that though the content of the speech was not recalled as militant, the manner in which OGLESBY presented it was militant, and in his opinion, this probably added to the confusion of the demonstrators.

He stated that several other [REDACTED] were present during this speech, namely, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. He stated [REDACTED] was, as he recalled, on top of the Field Museum and may not have heard OGLESBY's speech.

volume containing the testimony of CARL OGLESBY, Putney,

As of the date of his testimony, OGLESBY indicated a residence in Putney, Vt.; however, page 14032 of the transcript reflects that in the summer of 1970 he was to be a Fellow of the Humanist Institute, Aspen, Colorado, and in the fall of 1970, was to join the School of Critical Studies, California Institute of the Arts, in Los Angeles, California.

Consequently, copies of this letter are being provided Denver and Los Angeles for information, while the reproduced material is being enclosed for the Albany office. No copy is being retained by Chicago. In the event OGLESBY has departed Albany territory, Albany should forward to the appropriate office.
